STATE OF OREGON
DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AND BUSINESS SERVICES
DIVISION OF FINANCE AND CORPORATE SECURITIES AND INSURANCE DIVISION

BEFORE THE DIRECTOR OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AND BUSINESS SERVICES

In the Matter of:

ID-09-0027

ROBERT WARREN SPRUILL,
dba Brooke Auto Insurance
Services and dba Brooke Agency
Services Company, LLC,

ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST, ORDER ASSESSING CIVIL PENALTY AND CONSENT TO ENTRY OF ORDER

Respondent.

WHEREAS the Director of the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services has conducted an investigation of certain business activities conducted by Robert Warren Spruill, dba Brooke Auto Insurance, and dba Brooke Agency Services Company, LLC ("Spruill"), and has determined that he has violated provisions of the Oregon Consumer Identity Theft Protection Act, Oregon Revised Statutes ("ORS") 646A.600 to 646A.628, and provisions of the Oregon Insurance Code, ORS Chapters 731 and 746; and

WHEREAS Spruill wishes to resolve and settle this matter with the Director; and

WHEREAS Spruill waives all rights relative to an administrative hearing and judicial review thereof;

NOW THEREFORE, as evidenced by the authorized signature(s) subscribed on this Order, Robert Warrant Spruill hereby CONSENTS to entry of this Order to Cease and Desist upon the Director's Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law as

Division of Finance and Corporate Securities
Labor and Industries Building
350 Winter Street NE, Suite 410
Salem, OR 97301-3881
Telephone: (503) 378-4387

1 stated hereinafter.

2 FINDINGS OF FACT

3 The Director FINDS that:

4 1. Robert Warren Spruill, a resident of the State of Washington, is an 5 insurance producer licensed to conduct insurance business in the State of Oregon
6 (License # 145167). Spruill is authorized to sell health, property, casualty and life
7 insurance products in Oregon. He does business under a number of assumed 8 business names, including Brooke Auto Insurance Services and Brooke Agency
9 Services Company, LLC (hereinafter "Brooke Auto"). Brooke Auto has offices located 10 at 1513 NE 181st Avenue, Portland, Oregon 97230.

11 2. The Oregon Consumer Identity Theft Protection Act requires persons 12 who own, maintain or otherwise possess data that includes a consumer's personal 13 information that is used in the course of the person's business, vocation, occupation 14 or volunteer activities to develop, implement and maintain reasonable safeguards to 15 protect the security, confidentiality and integrity of the personal information, 16 including disposal of the data.

17 3. A person that is subject to and complies with regulations promulgated 18 pursuant to Title V of the Financial Services Modernization Act of 1999, otherwise 19 known as the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, 15 USC § 6801, et seq., is deemed to be in 20 compliance with provisions of the Oregon Consumer Identity Theft Protection Act.

21 4. The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act requires the primary regulator of financial 22 services providers, which for insurance producers would be the Oregon Insurance 23 Division, to establish appropriate standards to respect the privacy of insurance 24 customers and to protect the security and confidentiality of those customers' 25 nonpublic information. In furtherance of this federal requirement, the Director, 26 pursuant to the Oregon Insurance Code, ORS Chapter 731, et seq., has adopted OAR

Division of Finance and Corporate Securities
Labor and Industries Building
350 Winter Street NE, Suite 410
Salem, OR 97301-3881
Telephone: (503) 378-4387

1 836-081-0111(1), which requires insurance producers to implement and thereby 2 implicitly develop, implement and maintain a comprehensive written information 3 security program. The program must include administrative, technical and physical 4 safeguards for the protection of customer information. The administrative, technical 5 and physical safeguards included in the information security program are required to 6 be appropriate to the size and complexity of the licensee and the nature and scope of 7 its activities.

8 5. Members of the public seeking to purchase an insurance product from 9 Brooke Auto or Brooke Corporation were required to submit an application. To 10 complete the application, Brooke Auto and Brooke Corporation solicited and 11 obtained such information as the customer's name, residential address, Social 12 Security number, bank account number, driver license number, vehicle license 13 number, credit card number and card expiration date.

14 6. On or before April 28, 2009, Spruill discarded over 1,000 insurance 15 business records and/or other documents related to insurance transactions of Brooke 16 Auto and Brooke Corporation into an unlocked garbage dumpster behind the NE 181st
17 Avenue offices of Brooke Auto. Approximately 50 of the discarded documents bore a 18 customer name, address and full unredacted Social Security number. Approximately 19 66 other discarded documents bore a customer's name and unredacted driver license 20 data, including license number. Approximately 900 more of the discarded 21 documents were merchant copies of customer credit card receipts which bore the 22 name and signature of the customer along with the full unredacted credit card 23 number and the card expiration date. Spruill failed to shred or otherwise make the 24 documents unreadable. The dumpster into which the documents were placed was 25 not locked and was accessible to the public.

26 7. On or about April 28, 2009, an employee of a business located nearby the 1 NE 181st location witnessed Spruill placing documents into the dumpster. He 2 investigated and found that the documents contained personal information including 3 unredacted Social Security numbers. He contacted a Portland television station, 4 which subsequently contacted the State of Oregon, Division of Finance and Corporate 5 Securities ("DFCS"). A staff enforcement officer of DFCS contacted the television 6 reporter at the Brooke Auto offices and recovered the discarded documents from the 7 dumpster.

8 8. Spruill told DFCS investigators that he disposed of the records of the 9 various insurance businesses in the unlocked dumpster. He acknowledged that the 10 materials included personal information, including unredacted Social Security 11 numbers, client names, driver license numbers and credit card numbers, as well as 12 business banking records. He told investigators that he wanted to be in compliance 13 with the statutes and that he understood that ignorance of the law was not an excuse.
14 He said that when he inquired of local police and the State of Oregon Insurance 15 Division back in the fall of 2008, no one told him that discarding these records was 16 wrong.

17 9. At the time he discarded the documents, Spruill had not developed 18 reasonable safeguards to protect the security, confidentiality and integrity of the 19 personal information or data collected or acquired in the course of conducting his 20 business, including disposal of the data.

21 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

22 10. Brooke Auto is, at all times material herein, considered a "financial 23 institution" for purposes of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, 15 USC § 6801, et seq.
24 (1999).

25 11. Spruill is a licensee of the Insurance Division as defined by ORS 746.600, 26 meaning that he is an insurer, insurance producer or other person authorized or 2 Insurance Code.

3 12. Spruill discarded over 1,000 insurance business records containing or 4 bearing "personal information" as defined in ORS 646A.602(11) in that the 5 documents contained business client names associated with unredacted Social 6 Security numbers, driver license numbers, bank account numbers, and/or credit card 7 numbers with card expiration dates.

8 13. Spruill failed to develop a comprehensive written information security 9 plan with reasonable safeguards to protect the security, confidentiality and integrity 10 of the personal information he collected or acquired in his insurance business in 11 violation of ORS 646A.622(1) and OAR 836-081-0111(1).

12 14. By discarding over 1,000 insurance business records containing or 13 bearing "personal information" into an unlocked trash container open to the public, 14 Spruill failed to implement or maintain reasonable safeguards to protect the security, 15 confidentiality and integrity of the personal information he collected or acquired in 16 the course of conducting his business, including disposal of the data, as required by 17 ORS 646A.622(1).

18 15. By discarding over 1,000 insurance business records and other 19 documents related to insurance transactions into an unlocked trash container open to 20 the public, Spruill failed to implement a comprehensive written information security 21 program that includes administrative, technical and physical safeguards for the 22 protection of customer information as required by OAR 836-081-0111(1).

23 16. Pursuant to ORS 646A.624(4)(a), a person who violates or who procures, 24 aids or abets in the violation of the Oregon Consumer Identity Theft Protection Act 25 may be subject to a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 for every violation.

26 17. Pursuant to ORS 731.988(1), an individual insurance producer, adjuster

1 or insurance consultant who violates any provision of the Insurance Code, including 2 any lawful rule adopted by the Director, may be subject to a civil penalty of not more 3 than $1,000 for each offense.
