15 Director") has conducted an investigation of INSURANCE DESIGNERS OF THE 16 NORTHWEST, INC. ("IDN"), HARRY DEAN PROUDFOOT, III ("PROUDFOOT"), and PHIL
17 JENSEN ("JENSEN") and determined that IDN, PROUDFOOT AND JENSEN transacted
18 securities business in the State of Oregon in violation of the Oregon Securities

25 FINDINGS OF FACT

26 The Director FINDS that:

1. Respondent Harry Dean Proudfoot, III, resides at 14880 SW 150th, Tigard, Oregon 97224. Respondent PROUDFOOT has been licensed by the Department of Insurance and Finance of the State of Oregon ("the Department") since April

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER, ORDER REVOKING LICENSE, ORDER DENYING EXEMPTIONS AND

1 1, 1968 as an insurance agent authorized to sell life and health insurance.
2 Respondent PROUDFOOT has been licensed by the Department since 1986 to sell
3 securities on behalf of Philadelphia Life Asset Planning Co. ("Philadelphia 4 Life").

5 2. Respondent PROUDFOOT is not, and has never been, licensed by the 6 Department to conduct securities transactions other than as a salesperson 7 licensed to Philadelphia Life. PROUDFOOT's authority under that license is 8 limited to effecting or attempting to effect sales of investment company 9 securities, variable contracts, and mutual funds.

10 3. Insurance Designers of the Northwest, Inc. ("IDN") was an Oregon
11 corporation incorporated on January 16, 1987 and dissolved on March 16, 1990.
12 IDN had its principal office at 5550 SW Macadam, Suite 215, Portland, Oregon
13 97201. During IDN's corporate existence, Respondent PROUDFOOT was its president 14 and agent for service of process and was responsible for its management, 15 control, and daily operations.

16 4. On May 3, 1990, Respondent PROUDFOOT registered "Insurance Designers 17 of the Northwest" as an assumed business name with the State of Oregon 18 Corporation Division, and presently conducts business under that name. The 19 principal office address at which Respondent PROUDFOOT conducted business under 20 the name "Insurance Designers of the Northwest" was formerly 11825 SW Greenburg
21 Road, #2-A, Tigard, Oregon 97223. Respondent PROUDFOOT presently conducts 22 business at his residence address.

23 5. Respondent PROUDFOOT declared bankruptcy in 1983, in substantial part 24 to discharge debts to clients to whom he claimed to have sold, but to whom he 25 failed to deliver, silver bullion. Proudfoot maintains that in connection with 26 the bullion sales, he was a salesman only, sold the bullion in good faith, was

1 unable to get the product delivered, and became insolvent as a result of efforts 2 to reimburse customers from his own resources.

3 6. On March 22, 1990, Respondent PROUDFOOT filed a personal bankruptcy
4 petition with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Oregon, pursuant to 5 Chapter 13 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

6 7. Respondent Phil Jensen ("JENSEN") resides at 14081 SE Rust Way,
7 Boring, Oregon 97009. From May 29, 1987 until May 31, 1990, Respondent JENSEN
8 was licensed by the Department as a salesperson of life and health insurance.
9 Respondent JENSEN has never been licensed by the Department to conduct 10 securities transactions in any capacity.

11 8. In the fall of 1988, Respondent PROUDFOOT was engaged in business as 12 the managing general agent for a number of insurance companies. In this 13 capacity, he supervised the activities of agents who were authorized to sell 14 life and health insurance for these companies. In or about October 1988 and 15 continuing through 1989, PROUDFOOT attempted to expand his life insurance 16 brokerage and annuity business operations by setting up offices and, in some 17 cases, corporations, in the states of Washington, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, and 18 California. PROUDFOOT obtained licenses authorizing him to sell life and health 19 insurance in each of these states, and began to advertise and to select and 20 train agents in Salt Lake City, Las Vegas, Boise, and other areas. During this 21 period, PROUDFOOT prepared and distributed to Oregon residents a brochure
22 describing IDN as a national network of companies with offices in many states.
23 None of the branch offices was successful and the expansion project was 24 abandoned. PROUDFOOT now conducts business at his residence address under the 25 assumed business name "Insurance Designers of the Northwest."

26 9. In or about October 1988, Respondent JENSEN was an agent authorized to 1 sell life and health insurance for a number of insurance companies under the 2 supervision of PROUDFOOT as managing general agent. At that time, PROUDFOOT

3 told JENSEN that he wanted to expand his business by setting up branch offices 4 in a number of other states, and needed to borrow some money for a year and a 5 half. PROUDFOOT asked JENSEN if he knew anyone who would lend him some money.

6 10. PROUDFOOT told JENSEN that any loans JENSEN obtained for him would pay 7 interest at the rate of 15 percent per annum. PROUDFOOT also told JENSEN that, 8 pursuant to agreements with insurance companies for which PROUDFOOT was managing 9 general agent, IDN was entitled to receive overrides, called "bonuses," on sales
10 by agents whom PROUDFOOT supervised. PROUDFOOT told JENSEN that any loans 11 JENSEN obtained for him would be secured by these anticipated bonuses.

12 PROUDFOOT told JENSEN that, based on his experience, the anticipated bonuses 13 could be expected to be at least equal to the amount of the loans they secured.

14 11. PROUDFOOT did not disclose to JENSEN, and JENSEN failed to disclose to 15 prospective investors: any information concerning PROUDFOOT's own or IDN's 16 assets or financial condition; the assets or financial condition of the 17 insurance companies from which PROUDFOOT said he anticipated receiving the bonus
18 payments to be assigned as collateral; the fact that PROUDFOOT had declared 19 bankruptcy in 1983, or the nature or amount of the debts discharged in his 1983 20 bankruptcy proceeding.

21 12. Between the latter part of 1988 and continuing through at least August 22 1989, JENSEN approached a number of Oregon residents to obtain loans for 23 PROUDFOOT. From at least five Oregon residents, JENSEN obtained at least seven 24 loans on PROUDFOOT's behalf. JENSEN obtained the loans through the sale of 25 promissory notes issued by IDN. JENSEN provided to each investor documents 26 purporting to assign to the investor IDN's interest in one or more of the 1 bonuses described above in paragraph 10.

2 13. The notes issued by PROUDFOOT and IDN, and sold through JENSEN, were 3 not registered for sale as securities in Oregon.

4 14. PROUDFOOT paid JENSEN a commission of ten percent of the face amount 5 of the loan for each loan JENSEN obtained.

6 15. The notes JENSEN sold were executed by PROUDFOOT as president of IDN.
7 As security for the loans, PROUDFOOT assigned to investors anticipated bonus
8 payments that were owed to IDN. The assignments were typically accompanied by a 9 copy of a corporate resolution of IDN, authorizing PROUDFOOT to assign the 10 anticipated bonuses to the note purchasers.

11 16. PROUDFOOT and IDN issued notes in the following amounts:

12 (a) A note dated December 23, 1988, for $100,000.00, due January 23, 13 1990, with interest at the rate of 15 percent per annum, to Lillian Loudon, 151 NW 6th, Toledo, Oregon 97391;

14 (b) A note dated January 11, 1989, for $15,000.00, due July 26, 1990, 15 with interest at the rate of 15 percent per annum, to Wayne and Virginia
Woolsey, 631 NW Grove, Newport, Oregon 97365;

16 (c) A note dated June 23, 1989, for $20,000.00, due September 23, 17 1990, with interest at the rate of 15 percent per annum, to Lillian Loudon;

18 (d) A note dated July 18, 1989, for $35,000.00, due January 23, 1991, 19 with interest at the rate of 15 percent per annum, to Robert R. and Audrey
J. Bowen, 83925 Cloud Nine Road, Florence, Oregon 97439;

20 (e) A note dated August 3, 1989, for $10,000.00, due February 23, 21 1991, with interest at the rate of 15 percent per annum, to Muriel F.
Warner, 48790 Breaker Avenue, Neskowin, Oregon 97149;

22 (f) A note dated August 9, 1989, for $17,500.00, due February 23, 23 1991, with interest at the rate of 15 percent per annum, to Virginia
Woolsey; and

24 (g) A note dated October 10, 1989, for $20,000.00, due April 25, 25 1991, with interest at the rate of 15 percent per annum, to Florence
Simpson, 15555 SE McKinley Avenue, Clackamas, Oregon 97015.

26 17. None of the notes PROUDFOOT and IDN issued has been repaid in full and 1 both principal and additional interest payments are due on each of them.

2 18. The insurance companies failed to make a number of the bonus payments
3 PROUDFOOT and IDN assigned as collateral on the loans. PROUDFOOT indicates that 4 he paid over to Lillian Loudon, on or about January 17, 1991, $30,000.00 in 5 bonus payments, and that thereafter, the insurance companies failed and 6 PROUDFOOT did not receive any other bonuses.

7 19. Respondent PROUDFOOT maintains that his actions as described in this 8 Order were pursuant to a good faith but unsuccessful effort on his part to 9 expand the business operations of IDN, and that insofar as he and IDN may have 10 violated the Oregon Securities Law, those violations were not intentional in 11 that they resulted from ignorance of the Oregon Securities Law.
