Accepted disabling claims are claims, accepted by insurers, arising from occupational injuries or diseases that entitle workers to compensation for disability or death.

Claims are listed according to the Standard Occupational Classification Manual, 2000 edition (SOC).

*"Logging workers" and "Flaggers, construction" are Oregon-specific occupation categories created by the Department of Consumer and Business Services to meet the reporting needs of the department.

Claims from 2004 and previous are classified according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics' Occupational Coding (OCC) system and have not been converted to the new SOC codes. Data on these older claims can be found in previous years' publications.

- Dashes indicate no claims were received.

0.0 percent indicates the percentage of claims calculates to less than 0.05.

Source data are continually updated to be as accurate as possible, so report results may vary over time.
