

recoup the assessment from its policyholders, unless OAR 836-031-0855 permits the insurer to do otherwise. If a member insurer recoups the assessment from its policyholders, then ORS 734.579(2) requires the insurer to annually certify to the director certain information about its recoupment assessment. OAR 836-031-0855(8) requires a member insurer to file a certification on a form specified by the director by June 1 of each year following the completion of a 12-month recoupment assessment period referred to in OAR 836-031-0855(6). At all relevant times, Westport was a member insurer of OIGA, was assessed by OIGA, recouped the assessment from its policyholders, completed a recoupment assessment period, and filed its certification. However, Westport filed its certification for 2006 on 6/19/07, 18 days late.
